The Spotlight is on Art at this year's Arts & Seafood Festival

August 15, 2011 – BLUFFTON, SC – More than ninety artists from ten different states will participate in the 2011 Historic Bluffton Arts and Seafood Festival scheduled for Sunday, October 16 – Sunday, October 23. One of the highlights of the week-long event is the juried Artist Showcase- Open Air Market, which takes place along Calhoun Street in Historic Bluffton on Saturday, October 22 and Sunday, October 23. Festival goers will enjoy seeing a variety of art media such as oil, acrylic, watercolor, pastel, mixed media, photography, metals, clay and wood. Come out and enjoy the fine art while supping on delicious food as you are entertained with great music to complete a wonderful time in the heart of Old Town Bluffton.

Support for the event from the community has been strong. Bluffton Today, Hargray, 104.9 The Surf, The Island Packet and the Rotary Club of Bluffton have all committed to major sponsorships.
